

BRIEF BIO

Alfons W. Henseler Member of the Supervisory Board since 2005

Alfons W. Henseler, born in Bonn in 1944, has many years' experience in the banking and financial services industry. Having held a variety of positions at Society Générale de Banque and Deutsche Bank, the credit card business was one of the focal areas of his professional career. At Deutsche Bank in Frankfurt, for instance, he was responsible for developing and launching Eurocard as the credit card of the European banking industry.

Alfons W. Henseler has been an independent management consultant since the early 1980s, working for a wide range of financial services companies. His client list has included eurocheque and Eurocard International in Brussels, MasterCard International, Deutsche Telekom and Volkswagen Financial Services.

Alfons W. Henseler is also Deputy Chairman of the Supervisory Board of Wirecard Bank and sits on the Supervisory Board of Diamos AG, Sulzbach. He is married and father of two daughters.